IMAGINATION

Think of imagination as something like the ocean waves because the waves never cease. Imagination is free for you to use at any time, and the truth is, the more you imagine, the more you'll have.

With every experience that you have, every day and every moment, you add more insight and awareness to your imagination. And whatever you imagine brings you more possibilities for an even more beautiful life.

Now, don't limit yourself to just imagining what is realistic and reasonable. I'm not saying people should downplay being down-to-earth. No, there is a place for that, too. But being pragmatic grows stale without fresh injections of free and untamed imagination.

You have been given a precious gift, and that is that you can imagine anything! Because our minds are free to roam anywhere, let's make that imagination meaningful and positive. Remember that your imagination is ever so powerful. Go imagine your way to a life of joy, bliss and fulfillment.

Imagination is the beginning of most creations. Just look around us! So imagine first, then let it take you places in your mind's eye. To keep imagining is one way to bring to life that dream, that manifestation.

Just let your imagination go wild. Imagine a world being so bright, loving and beautiful that you cannot help but to be propelled to make it real. It all starts with imagination.

Think about: Are you limiting yourself? If you can't imagine it, it won't happen.

[5] Circle the mistaken word:

- Imagination is free for you to use at any time, and the truth is, the less you imagine, the more you'll have.
- And nothing you imagine brings you more possibilities for an even more beautiful life.
- I'm not saying people shouldn't downplay being down-to-earth.
- Because our minds are free to roam nowhere, let's make that imagination meaningful and positive.
- Imagine a world being so bright, loving and beautiful that you cannot propel it to make it real.
